

I oppose any weakening of Indiana's no call law. I am grateful that I am no longer disturbed by callers I do not want to do business with, or do additional business with, unsolicited.